CHATTANOOGA must have been a pleasant little town "in the piping times of peace."

Nestled among the mountains, beside a river in the Tennessee, embayed in the grandest of scenery, the battlements of Lookout," its gray masonry alternating with the green of its oaks and the deeper shadows of its cedars, lifting majestically most within long rifle range; Missionary ridge, less ambitious but not less picturesque, within three flights of the shafts of Robin Hood and his merry men; the mount Tennessee loitering along, flowing south, flowing west, flowing north; the genial air, the generous earth; all must have rendered it a delightful nook in this poisonous world. From the summit of Lookout mountain a glorious landscape unrolls;

you can look upon Tennessee, Georgia,

Alabama; you can see the dim looming of the Blue Ridge and Bald Peak, and the smoky ranges of the "Old North State," the shadow of King's mountain is sacred for all time, since out of it came the first whisper for independence, which deepening and strengthening, at last broke out around the British throne; I am not sure you cannot see the misty hills of the

"Palmetto State" from the lookout.—Chi-

The people of the loyal States have bought at par, over $320,000,000 six per cent. bonds. That looks as though the people felt an abiding faith in the ability of the Government to crush rebellion and treason.

FORBES, of the Humboldt Register, has little faith in the proposed means of raising the sunken ship Aquila by constructing a coffer dam. He says it reminds him of an Illinois cow that he saw swallow a thistle and coffer dam head off.

A fellow contemplated for some minutes

the ponderous dimensions of a bystander's

as he surveyed the man's upper works:

This is the gold, in piles untold,
That lay in the house that Sam built.

This is Secretary Floyd,
Who was by Uncle Sam employed;
Who lived for years on Treasury pap,
And hooked the gold, in piles untold,
That lay in the house that Sam built.

This is old Buck, called Ten Cent Jim,
Who winked at Floyd, who blarneyed him.
For years the stealings they enjoyed,
Old Buck and Secretary Floyd,
Who were by Uncle Sam employed, etc.

This is old Jeff, the rebel chief,
Who with old Buck and Floyd, the thief,
Had laid a plan to kill old Sam,
But failed to do it like a d—n,
Did Jeff and Floyd, and Ten Cent Jim, etc.

This is General Beauregard,
Who with mortar, Paxian and petard,
On Sumter poured his iron hail
And did his country's flag assail,
By order of the rebel chief, etc.

This is Kentucky's favorite son,
Who fired Sumter's signal gun,
Which shook the earth with war's alarms
And roused the slumbering North to arms,
To punish vaunting Beauregard, etc.

This is Abraham Lincoln, who—
Resolved these rebels to subdue—
He called his boys and to them said,
"You're in the right, so go ahead,
Avenge the Flag and Kentucky's son," etc.

This is mad Valandigham,
Who railed at Uncle Abraham,
And said he did not care a d—n
Neither for him nor Uncle Sam;
Declared that he his best would do
To thwart the plans of Lincoln, who, etc.

These are the boys, of courage tried,
Who never treason could abide,
With bullets they the traitors cram,
With ballots licked Vallandigham
Who railed at Uncle Abraham, etc.

This is Uncle Samuel, who
Is widely known, respected too,
And while his boys love and revere him,
His enemies both hate and fear him;
For though engaged in many a fight
He's never failed to come out right;
Prides in his boys of courage tried,
Who never treason could abide,
With bullets they the traitors cram,
With ballots licked Vallandigham,
Who railed at Uncle Abraham,
And said he did not care a d—n
Neither for him nor Uncle Sam,
Nor yet for "any other man;"
Declared that he his best would do
To thwart the plans of Lincoln, who,
Resolved the rebels to subdue,
He called his boys and to them said,
"We're in the right, so go ahead,

A gentleman, in speaking of somebody's wife, regreted that she had no children. "Ah," said an Irish medical man present on the occasion, "to have no children is a great misfortune, but I have remarked that it is hereditary, in some families."

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 18th.

A detachment of the eleventh Pennsylvanian cavalry arrived yesterday, from a raid through Eastern North Carolina.

Fire.

PRESTON, C. W. Jan. 18th.

The woolen factory of Hunt and Elliott was burned this morning. Loss fifty thousand dollars; partly insured.

From Richmond.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18th.

Richmond papers report the passage, by Congress, of a bill to conscript all men who hitherto have furnished substitutes.

The Enquirer says: All the Virginia Railroad iron is nearly worn out, and so are the men working them. The Examiner says: There is no prospect of any considerable crops this year, in several of the fertile counties of South Western Va. In view of the foregoing named law the farmer's have hired their field hands to manufacturing companies, or sent them to cities and towns for employment. No corn will be raised and but little oats or wheat, which will barely suffice for home consumption.

The conscription of all the old soldiers in the rebel armies whose term shortly expires, is urged in a memorial to the rebel Congress, by Gen'ls. Hardee, Cheatham, Breckenridge and others.

Foreign News.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Jan. 17th.

The Columbia, from Galway the 5th, confirms the report that Maximilian will visit Paris and reach Mexico before the end of March, with requisite reinforcements. The Holstein question shows an increasing embitterment. The Times continues to take gloomy views and says, the Germans are waiting still upon events, while events threaten more and more to be master than a guide. An Address to Napoleon was introduced in the Corps Legislatif on the 4th. It expresses the hope, that beneficial results may speedily be derived by France from the Chinese and Mexican expeditions. Is very pacific in its tone toward Russia and Poland and loudly extols the Emperor's scheme for a Congress.

The rebel steamer Florida had completed repairs at Brest and anchored about two hundred yards from the Kearsage. She will sail in February. A French vessel will accompany each at an interval of 24 hours.

The indictment against King and Heenan has been removed into the court of the Queen's Bench.

The Press is quiet upon American affairs. The Times publishes a letter from its secession correspondent, Spence, from Liverpool, in which the writer admits that the North has made progress, but not in proportion to the cost. He contends that the next campaign will reveal greater difficulties for the North, and that their financial policy will sooner or later collapse.

The Anglo-Chinese fleet, fitted out by Capt. Osborne, was returning to England for sale, Prince Refay having refused to carry out the bargain. The understanding between Maximilian and Napoleon is said to be excellent, and it is said that capitalists overwhelm the Arch-Duke with offers of money, on the simple guarantee of his accession to the throne.

THE DAILY VEDETTE.
FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1864.

TO OUR PATRONS.

In consequence of the non-arrival of our expected supply of paper we were unable to issue the Weekly Vedette yesterday, and are compelled to suspend the Daily for three or four days. We deem this a suitable time to announce to our patrons that we propose to discontinue the Weekly altogether hereafter for the following reasons:

We find that a large majority of our subscribers are transferring their subscription from the Weekly to the Daily, seeming to prefer the Daily because it contains all the telegraphic and local news which it is impossible for us with our limited supply of type, small press, and the scarcity of printers to furnish in the Weekly, and as we do not propose to compete with large first class offices, but to keep up a sheet sufficiently large to meet the demands of and do the most good to the largest number. We think we can give better satisfaction by discontinuing the Weekly and making the Daily more worthy of patronage than it is now. We therefore, make the following proposition to our Weekly subscribers: That if they prefer it, we will transfer their names to the list of the Daily or remit the balance due on Weekly subscriptions from the time of discontinuance, Jan. 14, 1864. Those wishing to make the transfer as above will be waited upon by the Carriers of the Weekly and Daily who are authorized to act for us.

We propose in a few days to enlarge the Daily to nearly the former size of the Weekly, that we may be enabled not only to furnish all the telegraphic and local news, but also such original and selected matter as will prove of interest to our subscribers. Thanking our patrons for the liberality and kindness with which our little efforts to please have been received and rewarded, we trust to make the Daily a welcome and needed visitor to every house in camp and city.

We have a very limited amount of paper on hand, and that our subscribers may not be without the telegraphic news, extras will be issued to supply their demands until more paper arrives.

Newspapers addressed to the following persons, are detained in the Post Office, at Salt Lake City, for non-payment of postage:

V. Abbey, A. H. Alexander, M. Atmore, W. Eldridge, E. J. Holliday, C. F. R. Hahn, Thomas Huff, W. Mondt, J. T. Proctor, S. F. Price, John Porter, S. S. Rickers, I. Urquhart.

The Postmaster has given notice to the Post Adjutant that all soldiers of the command who have not the money to pay the postage, can have their papers by calling at the Post Office and acknowledging their indebtedness. Nothing more can be asked. It should also be borne in mind that soldiers' letters cannot pass through the mails without pre-payment, unless marked "Soldier's Letter," and countersigned on the envelope by a Field officer or an Adjutant.

Gov. Reed Vetoes the Mining Bill.

Yesterday the Governor sent to the House of Representatives the following veto of the Mining Act. The Governor takes a very proper view of the Act as passed by the Legislature and, we are convinced, has been guided by consideration of the manifest interests and want of the people. His reasons are clearly set forth, and the Veto Message, both in substance and style, is a document which does credit to His Excellency. As the veto of the Governor is a finality, it only remains for the Legislature to pass a suitable Act which will meet the objections urged by the Governor, or leave the whole subject matter of mining under the laws of the U. S. or the customs of the miners, which perhaps are sufficient for all practical purposes.

The final adjournment of the Legislature will take place to-day, by expiration of the forty days allowed by law for each Session.

Executive Department, Utah Territory,
Great Salt Lake City,
Jan. 21st, 1864.

To the Hon. Council and House of Representatives of the Legislative Assembly of Utah Territory—
Gentlemen:

Before your final adjournment, I deem it proper to inform you that I am constrained to withhold my signature and approval from the act entitled "An Act concerning Mining Claims." My reasons for this course are many, and I deem it necessary only to advert to some of them. In my Annual Message your attention was called, and favorable consideration asked to the new field of enterprise which the discovering and working of mines of precious metals opened to the people of the Territory. I regarded these discoveries as in the highest degree important, and matter of sincere congratulation to you and your constituents, and indulged the hope that the Legislature would esteem it a duty and a privilege to enact such laws as would tend to promote, encourage and foster mining enterprises. The act presented to me not only fails to fulfill these hopes, but on the contrary, would, in my opinion, result in restricting, oppressing and checking every mining enterprise, whether so designed or not. I can conceive of no more onerous and restrictive enactment than that which has been presented to me for approval. It provides for a cumbersome, expensive, and in my opinion, entirely useless machinery, denominated a "Superintendency of Mines." It places almost unlimited power in the hands of these men, with such discretionary and unrestricted powers as could hardly result in aught but evil. The terms of the act, if not vague, are inconsistent with themselves. The first section provides for the "office of Superintendent of Mining Claims," while the second section speaks of a "Board of three persons," and section sixth refers to a Board of Superintendency. This Superintendency or Board has unlimited power to appoint such officers and frame such by-laws as may be necessary, etc., and to have the general supervision of all mining claims, to locate the same, to determine the extent of each mining district, establish the bounds of each lot or mining claim, and assess the value of such claims for purposes of taxation. Such extended powers granted to these persons, no matter how earnest in their regard for the public weal, or honest in the execution of their high office, I cannot but regard it as a most dangerous precedent, and as unwise and impolitic in the extreme. The formulas prescribed in order to carry out the cumbersome machinery of the act, in the matters of locating, surveying, recording and transferring mining claims, are so minute in detail and so complex in character as to put a complete bar on mining enterprise and be the source of interminable legislation and conflict in the future.

Were there any doubt as to the effect of the Act, should it become a law, in retarding and preventing the development of our mineral resources, the Ninth Section would certainly remove such doubt. An annual tax of 20 per cent. on the assessed value of the mines, or the products of such mines, would unquestionably present an insuperable obstacle to the opening of a single mine in the Territory. It may well be doubted if the richest mine in the world, whether the Ophir or Gould & Curry, in Nevada, or the New Almaden, in California, could withstand for any length of time so onerous a burthen as an annual tax of 20 per cent. on its assessed value.

If it were possible to believe that the object designated by the act before me was to prevent the people from opening up the undoubtedly mineral wealth of the Territory, I could conceive of no more effectual means to accomplish that end than the passage of the act. Believing that the people are desirous of extracting from the earth the riches which industry and enterprise can find there, and that their best interests would be promoted by fostering and encouraging the development of mines of precious metals. I am constrained to withhold my signature from the act, regretting that your Honorable body could not, or has not devised a measure for the promotion of an important and growing interest of the Territory.

I am furthermore of the opinion, that in levying a tax upon mines of metal within the ground, unquestionably the property, solely, of the United States, the Legislature has exceeded its powers. The extent to which the power of taxation has ever been applied, or so far as I know, claimed, has been to tax the proceeds of a mine after extraction and segregation from the earth. Section 6 of the Organic Act of the Territory, in treating of the Legislative power specifically says: "No tax shall be imposed on the property of the United States." Unless then, it can be clearly shown, and I presume it will not be even claimed that the mines are not the "property of the United States," this act unquestionably comes within the purview of the above quoted prohibition.

Regretting that I am unable to agree with the Legislature, I have deemed it due to your Honorable body thus to set forth at some length the objections which renders it impossible for me to approve the act named.

AMOS REED, Acting Governor.

IMPORTANT VETO MESSAGE—THE GOVERNOR VETOES TWO ACTS.

Executive Department, Utah Ter.,
G. S. L. City,
Jan. 20th, 1864.

To the Hon. Council and House of Representatives of the Legislative Assembly of Utah Ter.

Gentlemen, I have to inform your Honorable body, that I have disapproved an Act entitled "An Act granting unto Joseph Young, Sen., the right to establish and control ferries on Bear River, also requiring him to build a bridge on the Malad," also an Act entitled "An Act granting unto Lewis Robinson and Joshua Terry, the right to establish and control a ferry, or ferries across Green River." While it would, no doubt, be a considerable convenience to have permanent ferries established across the streams named, I cannot approve of the policy of granting exclusive franchises at high rates of toll for a number of years, and embracing from twenty to thirty miles of rivers crossing the main roads of travel to the East and the North. The entire emigration across the plains from the Missouri river through this Territory, is compelled to cross Green River. The main emigrant road from this City to the Boise and Bannack mines and to California and Oregon, via Goose Creek Mountains and the Humboldt, cross Bear River. To grant an exclusive privilege to establish and control ferries across these two important streams at enormous rates of toll, would be to institute a monopoly so oppressive and burdensome upon the people that I cannot sanction these Acts.

That ferries will be established at proper points on both rivers by private enterprise, unless prohibited by such laws cannot be doubted. In order therefore, to prevent extortion, it might be well for the Legislature to authorize the establishment of such ferries, and to fix a moderate rate of toll as the maximum to be charged. This might be done by a special Act, granting the right to any particular person or persons, or by general law, permitting any citizen of the Territory, to establish such ferry. I cannot, however, consent that a monopoly of such character for a series of years shall be granted away, on the terms proposed in the Acts named. The public interests certainly do not require it, but on the contrary, would, in my opinion, be seriously jeopardized by such a course. Better leave the whole matter to private enterprise than thus burden the people, farmers, travellers, emigrants and others, with so burdensome a tax and so odious a monopoly.

AMOS REED, Acting Governor.

Territory of Utah Dr.
To Robert L. Campbell. To recording minutes and accompanying document of House of Rep., of Session 1862-3, in Legislative record, as per note of last Session, 16 days $50.

To Thomas Bullock for certifying minutes, and comparing said recorded minutes, 2 days $6.

Mr. Rowberry moved that the Committee on Claims and Appropriations be instructed to incorporate the sum of $500, in the Territorial Appropriation Bill, for repairing the Territorial road immediately west of Jordan bridge, near Great S. L. City. Seconded and carried.

(C. F. No. 13.) "An Act authorizing a toll bridge across Thomas' Fork of Bear River," was taken up and passed its second reading. Said bill passed its third reading by its title, the title was read and approved.

Mr. Richards presented a bill entitled "An Act to amend an Act to incorporate the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society," which was read the first time. Said bill passed its second reading. Said bill passed its third reading by its title, the title was read and approved.

Mr. Woolley presented Territorial Appropriation

Bill in progress, which was read, and referred back for amendments.

Mr. Preston presented resolutions, changing the location of the road in Summit Co., between Peck's Creek and Chalk Creek, which was read the first time. Said resolution was read the second time and adopted.

A Message was received and read, from the Council, announcing their non-concurrence in (H. F. No. 15,) "An Act for the better regulation of stray pounds, and for other purposes," and their adoption of "Memorial to the Secretary of the Treasury." Said Memorial was read, and the House concurred with the Council in the adoption thereof.

A Message was received and read, from the Council, announcing their adoption of Memorial to Congress, relative to the Penitentiary, and their adoption of Resolution in relation to publishing and distributing the laws and journals of the thirteenth Session. The House concurred in the adoption.

On motion of Mr. Allred, the House adjourned to Jan. 21st, at 10 a. m.

Rebel News.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 17th.

The Richmond Sentinel says: Yankee troops are being landed at Moorehead city. We expect stirring times on the Coast this winter. A Confederate Quarter-Master has been discovered to be a defaulter to the amount of half a million dollars.

FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 19th.

From Southern papers we glean the following:—The citizens of Montgomery, Alabama, were busy on the 4th taking in ice an inch thick.

The Wilmington Journal says the recent presence of Gen. Butler in Newbern and the concentration of troops at that point, as well as at Washington and Beaufort, leaves little room to doubt that an advance of the most serious character is contemplated and on the eve of execution by the enemy in North Carolina. The enemy may advance in the direction of Kingston and Goldsboro. No doubt they are increasing their forces at Washington and Plymouth, and we may expect an attack on the railroad near Rocky Mount and Weldon.

The Montgomery Advertiser says: Gen. Martin's entire cavalry force met the enemy at Talbot's station, and drove them four miles, when they were reinforced, and drove Martin back with considerable loss. The enemy remain at Mossy Creek, strongly entrenched. Our loss was one hundred and fifty. The railroad will be in running order to Bristol, in a few days.

Explanatory of the Collision at Painsville.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19th.

The following are the particulars of the accident near Painsville: The night-express from Buffalo, stuck in the snow, three miles east of that place. The accommodation train ran into it. Four cars were burned, and five persons killed, and a number wounded. The cause of the disaster was, that two men were detailed from the snow-bound train to watch, alternately to warn approaching trains. While one was relieving the other, who had nearly perished from cold, the collision occurred.

New Expedition—Burnside's Headquarters.

Boston, Jan. 19th.

The Traveler says that Col. Goodrich, of Burnside's staff, is in our vicinity preparing to organize, from New England, an expedition by land and sea, of which the 9th army corps is to form a nucleus. Colonel Goodrich's Department includes Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, Headquarters at Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Col. Goodrich, in an interview with Gov. Gillmore and Gen. Hinks, found them ready to co-operate in the enterprise in every possible way. The Headquarters of Gen. Burnside will be at New York.

The British Government must foot the bills of the Pirate Alabama.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20th.

In the letter of Secretary Seward to Minister Adams, referred to in last night's dispatches, the Secretary says: The U. S. do insist and must continue to insist that the British Government is justly responsible for the damages which the peaceful, law-abiding citizens of the U. S. have sustained by the depredations of the Alabama, that vessel having been built and fitted out in British waters. The Secretary cannot therefore instruct Minister Adams to refrain from pressing the claims which he has now in his hands.

BY OVERLAND TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY VEDETTE.]

From Port Royal.

New York, Jan. 18th.

By the Arago, from Port Royal and Stono Inlet the 15th: A squad of twenty, of the twentieth Conn. Vols., under Lieut. Walker, was captured, December 30th, near St. Augustine, Florida, by rebel cavalry. The British blockade runner, ship Silvanus, was captured in Doboys Sound, Georgia, on the third inst., by the gunboat Huron. The Wilmington Journal announced the beaching of two more blockade runners, steamers Ranger and Adier. The Richmond Whig of the 15th, thinks the future of the south is involved in next springs campaign in Upper Georgia.

Japan News.

New York, Jan. 19th.

By Japan letters to the Tribune, dated Oct. 31st; Prince of Nagotee has repaired his batteries shattered by the Wyoming, and bade defiance to all comers. Foreign representatives urged the Tycoon's Government to put down this Chieftain, and the Government gravely replied that an expedition had already been set on foot. The Prince of Orva also admonishes Foreigners not to approach his dominions. Nogosakie is filled with outlaw soldiers from Nagotee's country, and the Governor declares himself unable to protect Foreigners. A French official had been murdered but no redress was sought by the French Minister, who simply referred the matter to his Government, who will doubtless take decided steps.

From Charleston.

New York, Jan. 19th.

Hilton Head correspondence, of the 15th, states, that few vessels of the new expedition are moving out of the harbor. The siege of Charleston is temporarily suspended, except by fire from our guns on Morris Island where a sufficient force is left for defence and to work the guns, and where more batteries are being erected for the purpose of reducing the city to ashes. A large negro force accompanies the expedition, the War Department having authorized Gen. Gilmore to recruit all negroes in his Department as troops under white officers.

Defeat and Capture of Gen. Vance.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19th.

Head-Quarters here received a dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated Nashville, 17th, stating that the rebel Gen. Vance made a raid towards Pensville and captured a train of 23 wagons. He was promptly pursued by Col. Palmer who recaptured the wagons and took one ambulance loaded with medicines, a hundred horses and a hundred stand of arms. Vance and his Adjutant-General are among the prisoners captured.

Railroad Accidents.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19th.

A collision occurred on the Cleveland and Erie Railroad, near Painesville, between the Night-Express and an Accommodation Train. Several lives were lost and a large number of persons wounded.

HARRISBURGH, Jan. 19th.

A terrible railroad accident occurred this morning on the Catawissa railroad. One of the principal bridges between Summit and Catawissa gave way and the entire train dashed to atoms. A number of lives were lost. The accident is attributed to the recent rains. A passenger train had shortly before safely passed the bridge.

Storms.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19th.

A violent storm of wind and snow began last night and continues. Snow is from two to three feet deep and badly drifted. Trains on all the roads are abandoned and business is suspended.
